

IF Icebreaker Questions (Christmas version)

Description: Random Christmas-related information will be revealed as group members draw a card and answer a Christmas-themed “IF” question.

Group size: 4-8 people per group

Supplies:

- Printed game cards
- Stocking or Christmas gift bag (optional)

Before the game:

Print and cut apart the game cards.

Directions:

1. Say to the group, “Today/tonight you’re going to get to know the members of our group a little better as we all answer some fun Christmas “IF” questions. We’ll take turns drawing a card and answering questions such as: If you had to describe yourself as a Christmas carol, which would you choose and why? If you could eat any Christmas treat without it affecting your waistline, what would you enjoy? Please go ahead and take a card from the bag/pile. Do we have a volunteer who would like to go first?”
2. Once everyone has answered a question you are done.

Options:

Consider putting one card at each person’s chair/space before your meeting/group/event begins. Most will appreciate having some time to think about their response (though you run the risk of missing out on spontaneous answers).

If time permits have everyone draw a second card.

Rather than drawing cards, ask everyone to answer the same question.

Tips:

Print the cards on colored paper or cardstock so the questions can’t be seen.

You may want to laminate the cards for repeated use.

Give players the option to draw a second card if they are uncomfortable answering the first question they have drawn. Some questions may trigger difficult memories.

If you could select a National Christmas symbol, what would it be?

If Jesus joined you for Christmas, what would you talk about?

If your house were covered in Christmas lights, would it be white, multi-colored, or Griswold-style?

If you could travel back in time to re-live a Christmas from your past, which Christmas would you re-live?

If you could add a new Christmas tradition to your family's celebration, what would it be?

If you had to describe yourself as a Christmas carol, which would you choose and why?

If you could spend the day with anyone from the Christmas story, who would you chose?

If you were to build a life-size gingerbread house, what candy would it include?

If you could have a Christmas miracle, what would you ask for?

If you had to play one Christmas carol on repeat for 24 hours, what song would you choose?

If you could take a Christmas trip to any location, where would you go?

If you could celebrate Christmas in any time period, what would you choose?

If you had an unlimited Christmas budget, what special gift would you purchase and for whom?

If you could sing a Christmas duet with anyone, what song would you choose and with whom would you sing?

If you could watch your favorite Christmas movie right now, what would it be?

If you designed a new flavor of fudge, which ingredients would it include?

If you could eat any Christmas treat without it affecting your waistline, what would you enjoy?

If you could opt out of any Christmas task for the rest of your life, what would it be?

If you could name Santa's new reindeer, what would you call him/her?

If you could have anything your heart desires for Christmas dinner, what would the menu include?

